

UCSF Fresno/CMC Cleft and Craniofacial Center

UCSF Fresno

The UCSF Fresno/CMC Cleft and Craniofacial Team at Community Medical Centers provides coordinated care to people affected with craniofacial conditions from birth through young adulthood.

Our interdisciplinary team works together to provide a personalized treatment plan and coordinate care for everyone we treat.

The Center is a designated Specialty Care Center for Cleft and Craniofacial Care by California Children's Services.

Expertise includes, but is not limited to:

- Apert syndrome
- Cleft lip
- Cleft palate
- Craniofacial anomalies
- Craniosynostosis (fused skull, abnormal head shape, abnormal skull sutures)
- Crouzon
- DiGeorge syndrome (22q deletion)
- Facial Trauma
- FAV spectrum
- Head and Neck Tumors and Cysts
- Hemifacial microsomia
- Hypernasality
- Malocclusion
- Micrognathia
- Microtia
- Pierre-Robin
- Plagiocephaly
- Stickler's syndrome
- Treacher-Collins
- Van der Woude syndrome
- Velocardiofacial syndrome
- Velopharyngeal insufficiency

Our Team

- George Zakhary, DDS, MD, FACS
Director of Cleft and Craniofacial Surgery
- Brian M. Woo, DDS, MD, FACS
Assistant Director of Cleft and Craniofacial Surgery
- Dietitian
- Child Psychiatry
- Pediatric Dentistry
- Prosthodontics
- Ear, Nose and Throat
- Genetics
- Orthodontics
- Pediatrics - Christian Faulkenberry-Miranda, MD, FAAP
- Social Worker
- Speech and Language Pathology - Taylor Davis, SLP
- Team Nurse Coordinator - LeeAnn Cunningham, RN

OMFS Care Center

Deran Koligian Ambulatory Care Center
290 N Wayte Lane
Fresno, CA 93701

Phone: (559) 459-4101 | Fax: (559) 459-5744

OMFS Care Center

Deran Koligian Ambulatory Care Center

290 N Wayte Lane

Fresno, CA 93701

Phone: (559) 459-4101 | Fax: (559) 459-5744